Scriptures:

- Hebrews 1:2-3 – "In these last days, God has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom he also created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power."
- Hebrews 1:8 – "But of the Son he says, 'Your throne, O God, is forever and ever; the scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your kingdom.'"
- Hebrews 12:1-3 – "Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God."

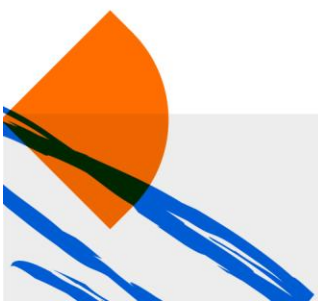

Session Intro: This group study focuses on understanding Jesus Christ not only as the Savior but as the King of God's Kingdom. Through a discussion of Hebrews 1 and Hebrews 12, we will explore the implications of Jesus' kingship in personal life, reflecting on how to fix our eyes on Jesus and engage with Him in a meaningful, ongoing way.

Question 1: Can you picture Jesus Christ as the King of the Kingdom of God?

- In Hebrews 1:2-3, Jesus is portrayed as the heir of all things, the radiance of God's glory, and the one who upholds the universe by His power. Reflect on how you picture Jesus—not just as a Savior but as a reigning King. Share one implication that this scripture could have on how you relate to God.

Question 2: Has the general truth that Jesus is King become personal to you?

- Hebrews 1:3 emphasizes that the glory of God radiates through Jesus. Have you ever experienced a personal encounter with the radiance of God through Jesus?

Question 3: What does it mean to fix your eyes on Jesus?

- Drawing from Hebrews 12:1-3, discuss how fixing your eyes on Jesus impacts your faith journey. What would it look like to start each day by dedicating the first moments to Jesus, inviting His glory into your story?

Live It Out:

- This week, dedicate a specific time in your daily routine to fix your eyes on Jesus—whether it's the first cup of coffee, the first prayer of the day, or a particular moment each week. This practice will help deepen your personal relationship with Jesus as King, shifting from just a theological understanding to a transformative, lived experience. Consider journaling or sharing experiences with the group in upcoming sessions to encourage mutual growth and reflection.
